A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO INFORMATION PRACTICES.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 92F, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 2 amended by adding a new section to part IV to be appropriately
3 designated and to read as follows:

4 "§92F-A Abuse of process. (a) An agency may request that 5 the office of information practices declare that a person is a 6 vexatious requester.

7 (b) The office of information practices may declare that a
8 person is a vexatious requester if it determines that the person 9 has established a pattern of conduct that amounts to an abuse of 10 a process set forth under this chapter. When the person has 11 been working in concert with another person to make requests,
12 including making identical requests, both persons' requests may 13 be considered as part of the person's pattern of conduct. The 14 office of information practices shall consider whether a 15 person's pattern of conduct includes the following factors; 16 provided that no one factor alone shall be sufficient to find an 17 abuse of a process set forth under this chapter:

- 1 (1) The large quantity or broad scope of requests by the 2 person;
- 3 (2) Splitting requests to avoid or minimize fees;
- 4 (3) Duplicative or repetitive requests made for the same 5 action, where the agency has already responded to the 6 request;
- 7 (4) Requests for records submitted for a purpose other 8 than obtaining access to the records, including 9 nuisance value or harassment;
- 10 (5) Institution of proceedings under this chapter,
11 including appealing requests or submitting complaints
12 or investigation requests, without a reasonable 13 ground, or to accomplish an objective unrelated to the 14 purpose of the proceedings;
- 15 (6) Abandonment of requests when the fee is not waived, 16 and the request is for a purpose other than obtaining 17 access to the records; or
- 18 (7) Requests that only marginally promote the public
19 interest in disclosure under this chapter, including 20 requests focused on an agency's handling of the 21 requester's own requests or correspondence.

1 (c) The burden to establish that a person is a vexatious
2 requester shall be on the agency seeking to have the person
3 declared a vexatious requester. The office of information
4 practices shall not declare that a person is a vexatious
5 requester without first providing the person with notice and an 6 opportunity to respond to the agency's claims; provided that 7 this section shall not require a contested case hearing.

8 (d) The office of information practices may restrict a 9 vexatious requester's exercise of the rights set forth in this 10 chapter; provided that the person may request the ombudsman to 11 review any restriction to ensure that it is narrowly tailored to 12 the vexatious requester's abusive pattern of conduct. The 13 ombudsman shall have the authority to affirm, modify, or 14 overturn any restriction based on that person's request. Any 15 designation of a person as a vexatious requester shall not last 16 for a duration beyond two years from the date of the 17 determination by the office of information practices."

6 and without prejudice to rights of judicial 7 enforcement available under this chapter;

9 public advisory guidelines, opinions, or other 10 information concerning that agency's functions and
