A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO PUBLIC AGENCY MEETINGS AND RECORDS.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

SECTION 1. Section 92-3, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

"§92-3 Open meetings. Every meeting of all boards shall be open to the public and all persons shall be permitted to attend any meeting unless otherwise provided in the constitution or as closed pursuant to sections 92-4 and 92-5; provided [further] that the removal of any person or persons who wilfully disrupts a meeting to prevent and compromise the conduct of the meeting shall not be prohibited. The boards shall afford all interested persons an opportunity to submit data, views, or arguments, in writing, on any agenda item. The boards shall also afford all interested persons an opportunity to present oral testimony on any agenda item. The boards may provide for reasonable administration of oral testimony by rule."

1 brought against him, where consideration of matters
2 affecting privacy will be involved; provided that if 3 the individual concerned requests an open meeting, an 4 open meeting shall be held;

5 [(2)] (3) To deliberate concerning the authority of persons
6 designated by the board to conduct labor negotiations
7 or to negotiate the acquisition of public property, or 8 during the conduct of such negotiations;

9 [(3)] (4) To consult with the board's attorney[;] on 10 questions and issues pertaining to the board's powers,
11 duties, privileges, immunities, and liabilities;

12 [(4)] (5) To investigate proceedings regarding criminal 13 misconduct; and

14 [(5)] (6) To consider sensitive matters related to public
15 safety or security.

16 (b) In no instance shall the board make a decision or 17 deliberate toward a decision in an executive meeting on matters
18 not directly related to the purposes specified in subsection (a).

19 This part shall not apply to any chance meeting at which matters
20 relating to official business are not discussed. No chance
21 meeting or electronic communication shall be used to circumvent 22 the spirit or requirements of this part to make a decision or to

2 has supervision, control, jurisdiction, or advisory power."

3 SECTION 4. Section 92-7, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 4 amended by amending subsections (a) and (b) to read as follows:

5 "(a) The board shall give written public notice of any 6 regular, special, or rescheduled meeting[.], or any executive 7 meeting when anticipated in advance. The notice shall include an 8 agenda which lists all of the items to be considered at the 9 forthcoming meeting, the date, time, and place of the meeting[.], 10 and in the case of an executive meeting the purpose shall be 11 stated.

12 (b) The board shall file the notice in the office of the 13 lieutenant governor or the appropriate county clerk's office, and 14 in the board's office for public inspection, at least six 15 calendar days before the meeting. The notice shall also be 16 posted at the site of the meeting whenever feasible. No board
17 shall change the agenda, once filed, by adding items thereto
18 without a two-thirds recorded vote of all members to which the 19 board is entitled; provided that no item shall be added to the 20 agenda if it is of reasonably major importance and action thereon
21 by the board will affect a significant number of persons. Items 22 of reasonably major importance not decided at a scheduled meeting

3 SECTION 5. Section 92-12, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 4 amended to read as follows:

5 "§92-12 Enforcement. (a) The attorney general and the 6 prosecuting attorney shall enforce this part.

7 (b) The circuit courts of the State shall have jurisdiction
8 to enforce the provisions of this part by injunction or other 9 appropriate remedy.

10 (c) Any person may commence a suit in the circuit court of 11 the circuit in which a prohibited act occurs for the purpose of 12 requiring compliance with or preventing violations of this part 13 or to determine the applicability of this part to discussions or 14 decisions of the public body. The court may order payment of 15 reasonable attorney fees and costs to the prevailing party in a 16 suit brought under this section.

17 (d) The proceedings for review shall not stay the 18 enforcement of any agency decisions; but the reviewing court may 19 order a stay if the following criteria have been met:

20 (1) There is likelihood that the party bringing the action
21 will prevail on the merits;

22 (2) Irreparable damage will result if a stay is not 23 ordered;
