

Lance Collins proposal for 9.12.22 meeting

I'd like to propose a further edit to Brian's version:

provided that once disclosure is required, the name of an employee may be withheld, if that employee lacks discretionary authority, was not the person who made the decision, and is not under investigation for or engaged in criminal conduct or other wrongdoing.

Mahalo for your consideration
lance*