The Sunshine Law requires that the notice include instructions on how to request an auxiliary aid/service or accommodation. As of March 2023, the State Disability and Communication Access Board (DCAB) revised its recommended instructions for public meeting notices, and now recommends that boards use either one of the two sample statements below:

“If you need an auxiliary aid/service or other accommodation due to a disability, contact [Name] at [phone number and email address] as soon as possible, preferably by [reply date]. Requests made as early as possible have a greater likelihood of being fulfilled.

Upon request, this notice is available in alternate/accessible formats.

Or, if no reply date is provided:

“If you need an auxiliary aid/service or other accommodation due to a disability, contact [Name] at [phone number and email address] as soon as possible. Requests made as early as possible have a greater likelihood of being fulfilled.

Upon request, this notice is available in alternate/accessible formats.”

Other than checking to see if a notice includes accommodation instructions as required by the Sunshine Law, OIP has no jurisdiction over federal and state laws relating to the rights of the disabled. For information about the rights of the disabled, please contact your own attorney or call DCAB at (808) 586-8121 or (808) 586-8162 (TTY) or dcab@doh.hawaii.gov.
